Warrant Service Leads to Fentanyl Trafficking Arrest in Ridgeland

JASPER COUNTY, S.C. – On the evening of November 1, 2025, deputies with the Jasper County Sheriff's Office conducted warrant services in the Scarlett Ibis Drive area of Ridgeland.

During the operation, deputies identified Michael Reeves, who was found to have an active warrant through the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services. Upon taking Reeves into custody, deputies located and seized approximately 47.4 grams of a substance presumed to be Fentanyl, along with additional narcotics.

Reeves has been charged with Trafficking Fentanyl and Possession of a Schedule IV Controlled Substance.

Sheriff Chris Malphrus commended the deputies involved for their proactive work in locating and apprehending Reeves. "Fentanyl continues to be one of the most dangerous drugs affecting our communities," said Sheriff Malphrus. "Every seizure like this represents lives potentially saved."
